St. Luke - tradition says he painted the first icon of Our Lady - a style future icons followed

St. Luke - Feast Day Wednesday 18th October

St. Luke, the Evangelist, is the author of both the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles. Two themes of his Gospel (Good News) are liberation and hospitality.

In recent years many have looked to Luke as a powerful champion of liberation from oppressive economic and social structures. A fresh appreciation of the radical theology of Mary's hymn the Magnificat (1:46-55), the Beatitudes and the Woes (6:20-26), and Luke's general privileging of the poor and marginalized at the expense of the wealthy and secure has opened up insights into the life and message of Jesus through the lens of liberation that Luke's Gospel provides.

Hospitality is another lens that Luke provides for us to see and know Jesus. Even a casual reading of Luke makes clear how often in the Gospel significant events and encounters take place in the context of meals and the offering (or not offering) hospitality.

Luke sees the life and ministry of Jesus as a visitation on God's part to the world. From the start he raises the question: how will this guest (Jesus), this visitor, be received? The crucial point is that those who do receive him finds that he brings them into a much wider sphere of hospitality: the 'hospitality of God'. The one who comes as visitor and guest in fact becomes host and offers a hospitality in which human beings and, potentially, the entire world, can become truly human, be at home, can know salvation in the depths of their hearts.

As a Catholic Community we respect the Wurrundjeri people, traditional custodians of the land upon which our parish resides, and commit ourselves to reconciliation and justice for all in our community and nation.

Collecting rubbish, weeding, trimming and pruning around the grounds and car parks, and any other small jobs that can easily be done!

BYO bucket, gloves, secateurs and weeding fork. Any other labour saving equipment you can bring, will be most welcome! We will have a large garden waste skip on site to be filled!

Making our parish values real:

For example, what does 'inclusiveness' mean in practice? Parishioners are included in many ways but I realise it's sometimes a good idea to mention specific needs / opportunities. Just now, we need lectors for the 9am Mass at Mary Immaculate, that is to be the Reader of the Scriptures or the Leader who welcomes the people, leads the psalm and reads the Prayers of the Faithful.

If you are new to the parish or your personal situation now makes you more available to be involved as part of a roster at Mary Immaculate Church, I'd be so pleased to talk to you. - Merle (Gilbo) 9497 1691 or merlegilbo@hotmail.net.au

The Gospel message for children:

For many years, sheets describing the weekly Gospel message of the day in word and picture have been provided for young children in each church. Have you noticed them? If children are with you, do look for them and the colouring pencils. If the children are not with you, you are very welcome to take a sheet home and share the message and activity sheet with them.

Understanding Power of Attorney Laws

Information session: Wednesday 25 October from 10am-12pm at Level 3, 204 Lygon St, Carlton.

People interested in learning more about making enduring powers of attorney will find this information session a useful update on the new power of attorney laws. Powers of attorney allow adults with legal capacity to appoint someone to make decisions for them if they are unable or need help to make their own decisions. Many people are unsure about which documents to complete and the processes required to ensure they are legally valid.

The session will explore issues around choosing the right decision maker and different powers of attorney available in Victoria.

1st Reading Isaiah 25:6-10

A reading from the prophet
Isaiah

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all people a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever.

The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us; for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.

The Word of the Lord:
Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 22

(R) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.

(R) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort.

(R) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.

My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.

(R) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

(R) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

2nd Reading

Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever.

The Word of the Lord:
Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called. Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 22:1-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He dispatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town.

Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out onto the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him, "How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?" And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'
