Mary Immaculate School

- Appointment of Principal

At the beginning of 2017 Veronica Antrim was appointed as 'Acting' Principal of Mary Immaculate School after the retirement of the previous Principal. It was then deemed appropriate to appoint an 'Acting' Principal rather than enter into a normal Principal's tenured contract because of the foreshadowed review by Catholic Education Melbourne (CEM) of our Parish Schools and the development of our future vision for Catholic education within the Parish of Ivanhoe.

Now that the CEM Working Party has concluded its work, and we move into a new era of consolidation and stability for both Mary Immaculate and St. Bernadette's Schools, it is appropriate to formally appoint a Principal to Mary Immaculate.

That, of course, requires that we follow due process: so the position must be advertised and an advisory panel has been appointed to assist and advise the Parish Priest on the appointment.

I have appointed Lisa White (representing the school community) and Bianca Connor (representing the parish) to the Panel, which also includes CEM appointees including our regional Principals' Consultant and a current school Principal (from outside our zone). Please keep the work of our Panel in your prayers over the coming weeks.

I am extremely grateful that Veronica Antrim was prepared to accept the 'Acting' Principal's position during this stressful and uncertain time of review and development. The talent, gifts, vigour and professionalism she has brought to the position has been a blessing to both school and parish and is a testament to the high calling and vocation of both Veronica and her staff. A vocation that is esteemed and deserves our highest respect. I certainly look forward to Veronica's application for the Principal's position as we follow due process in this crucial appointment and seek out the person God is calling to lead our school into the next decade.

Fr. Bill

As a Catholic Community we respect the Wurrundjeri people, traditional custodians of the land upon which our parish resides, and commit ourselves to reconciliation and justice for all in our community and nation.

Making our Parish Values real:

For example, what does 'inclusiveness' mean in practice? Parishioners are included in many ways but I realise it's sometimes a good idea to mention specific needs / opportunities. Just now, we need lectors for the 9am Mass at Mary Immaculate, that is to be the Reader of the Scriptures or the Leader who welcomes the people, leads the psalm and reads the Prayers of the Faithful. If you are new to the parish or your personal situation now makes you more available to be involved as part of a roster at Mary Immaculate Church, I'd be so pleased to talk to you. - Merle Gilbo 9497 1691 or merlegilbo@hotmail.net.au

1st Reading Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more:

It is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me. I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me. Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.

The Word of the Lord:
Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

95: 1, 3-5, 7-10

(R) Give the Lord glory and honour.

O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth. Tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples.

(R) Give the Lord glory and honour.

The Lord is great and worthy of praise, to be feared above all gods; the gods of the heathens are naught. It was the Lord who made the heavens.

(R) Give the Lord glory and honour.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power, give the Lord the glory of his name. Bring an offering and enter his courts.

(R) Give the Lord glory and honour.

Worship the Lord in his temple. O earth, tremble before him. Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.' He will judge the peoples in fairness.

(R) Give the Lord glory and honour.

2nd Reading 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

The Word of the Lord:
Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Shine on the world like bright stars; you are offering it the word of life. Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 22:15-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God.'

The Gospel of the Lord:
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Prayers of the Faithful

Lord of all the earth hear us:
Lord, hear our prayer.
