POPE FRANCIS APPOINTS BISHOP PETER COMENSOLI THE NINTH ARCHBISHOP OF MELBOURNE

Archbishop-elect Comensoli (b.1964) grew up in the Illawarra region of New South Wales and was educated by the Good Samaritan Sisters and Marist Fathers. He studied commerce at the University of Wollongong and worked for a time in the banking sector. He entered the seminary in 1986 and was ordained in 1992. After serving in a number of parishes in the Diocese of Wollongong, he was appointed Auxiliary Bishop to the Archdiocese of Sydney in 2011. He has served as Bishop of Broken Bay for the past three-and-a-half years.

Archbishop-elect Comensoli said he was deeply moved by the Holy Father's trust in making this appointment. 'The life of Christian discipleship is a precious gift, developed through hearing and responding to God's call. In accepting this call to be a new missionary among God's people of the Archdiocese of Melbourne, I readily acknowledge the great responsibility entrusted to me, along with the frailties I carry,' he said.

'To the good people of Melbourne, let me say that you are already in my prayers. As I come among you I place my trust in the tender encouragement of Jesus. We are pilgrims together in the Lord's vineyard. As we take these first steps in friendship, may we anchor our lives to his Gospel. I look forward to getting to know you. And, as a northerner, I will need some guidance around that mysterious code of football called AFL!'

In announcing the appointment, Pope Francis also accepted Archbishop Denis Hart's resignation after 17 years as Archbishop of Melbourne. Archbishop Hart will serve as Apostolic Administrator of the Archdiocese until the installation of Archbishop-elect Comensoli on Wednesday 1 August.

At a national level, Archbishop-elect Comensoli is currently a member of the Bishops' Commission for Family, Youth and Life, and for Evangelisation. From November 2018 he will take up the appointment of Chair of the Bishops' Commission for Life, Family and Public Engagement, and membership of the Bishops' Commission for the Plenary Council.

UPDATE ON PARISH REDEVELOPMENT AND HERITAGE TRIBUNAL HEARING

In handing down its decision on the application to list Mary Immaculate Church on the Victorian Heritage Register, the Tribunal has decided that "after considering the Executive Director's recommendation, submissions received and conducting a hearing into those submissions, the Heritage Council has determined that Mary Immaculate Church is not to be included in the Victorian Heritage Register".

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'" EZEKIEL 2:2-3

God asks each of us to do some special work for Him. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. However, do we listen to God when He calls? Do we get up on our feet and use our talent to do the work He asks of us? Remember, God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called.

1st Reading Ezekiel 2:2-5

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, 'Son of man, I am sending you up to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, "The Lord says this." Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 122

(R) Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

To you have I lifted up my eyes, you who dwell in the heavens: my eyes, like the eyes of slaves on the hand of their lords.

(R) Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

Like the eyes of a servant on the hand of his mistress, so our eyes are on the Lord our God till he shows us his mercy.

(R) Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy. We are filled with contempt. Indeed all too full is our soul with the scorn of the rich, with the proud man's disdain.

(R) Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

2nd Reading 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, 'My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.' So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ's sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 6:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

The Gospel of the Lord:
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Prayers of the Faithful

Lord hear us:

Lord, hear our prayer.

Next Week:

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

1st Reading: Amos 7:12-15

Resp. Psalm: 84:9-14

2nd Reading: Ephesians 1:3-14

Gospel: Mark 6:7-13

NAIDOC JULY ART EXHIBITION: 'ABORIGINAL WAY OF THE CROSS'

3 July - 31 July at St Francis Pastoral Rooms, corner Lonsdale & Elizabeth St, Melb. This NAIDOC art exhibition is titled 'Aboriginal way of the Cross', an exhibition produced by the Aboriginal Catholic Ministry and featuring paintings by the extraordinary John Dunn. John is a member of the 'Stolen Generations', and these Stations are an exploration of his own journey. They illustrate beautifully how Aboriginal people really do resonate with the sufferings of Jesus. The story of hurt, pain and spiritual suffering is one that many Aboriginal people can identify with but it also tells the story of coming out the other side a stronger person. This is the story of art of new beginnings, highlighting that where there is faith there is always hope.

Details: Phone 9926 5751 or Sherry Balcombe, Coordinator Aboriginal Catholic Ministry, 434 St Georges Road, Thornbury
