PALM SUNDAY: YEAR B

THE WORD

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Six days before the Passover, when the Lord came into the city of Jerusalem, the children ran to meet him; in their hands they carried palm branches and with a loud voice cried out: * Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

- V. 1. All who see me deride me. They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend.' R.
- V. 2. Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones. R.
- V. 3. They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe.
O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me! R.
- V. 4. I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled. 'You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons.' R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! Christ became obedient for us even to death dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL: God of mercy and compassion: Hear our prayer

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.

Holy Week and Easter

2015 Lenten journey is coming to an end, and our hearts and minds turn to the journey through Holy Week to Easter. The liturgy this week is not afraid of tragedy and scandal. It makes us live the hour of Jesus, that Hour at once dark and glorious for which he said he had come. It is the week in which the unrepeated events surrounding the crucifixion and resurrection of our Lord took place.

Palm / Passion Sunday

Palms are blessed. With the Hebrew children, we, as a local church, take part in the prophetic entrance of Christ as he enters Jerusalem. Later in the Mass, we listen to the sombre story of Jesus' passion (trial and death). This year we listen to the Passion of our Lord according to Mark. The evangelist exaggeratedly presents the disciples much worse than they really are: betrayal, deserted, denial, failing to understand Jesus' mission... "Mark often presents them as failure and in the end the women disciples, who are much as disciples as the men are, they also fail. Failure is at the heart of Christian life, ability to live a balance Christian life despite failures is one of the fundamental things in our Catholic Christian tradition because we believe in the God who loves us, forgives us and saves us despite our failures." (Fr Frank Moloney SDB at eConference on Mark Gospel 2012) This is really encouraging!

The Easter Triduum in Brief

Holy Thursday – The Lord's Last Supper

In Brief: The evening Mass was developed and celebrated by 10th century; commemorate the Last Supper of our Lord; washing of the feet was included by the middle of 5th century; also known as Maundy Thursday – Maundy [English], mandatum [Latin] – command recalling the Lord's command at the Last Supper to 'do this in memory of me', or the command expressed in washing each other's feet as sign of mutual service; the stripping of altar cloths symbolised the stripping of Christ at his passion.

Scriptural quote: 'Do you understand' he said 'what I have done to you? You call me Master and Lord, and rightly; so I am. If I, then, the Lord and Master, have washed your feet, you should wash each other's feet. I have given you an example so that you may copy what I have done to you.' Jn 13:13-15

Good Friday of the Lord's Passion

In Brief: The celebration takes place at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the time when Christ died on the Cross. The celebration of Good Friday is not done in the form of a Mass due to the ancient tradition of fasting. The celebration includes the proclamation of the Passion from Gospel of John, the veneration of the Cross and Holy Communion.

At the end of the Liturgy of Word are the general intercessions which are the propitious moment to pray for the important and pressing needs of the Church and the whole world. As St. Teresa of Avila would say: "when the world is on fire, we cannot pray for little things."

Holy Communion: Good Friday Holy Communion has a particular significance. It stresses our union with Christ whose body was pierced, broken for us, on the cross. Our union with him is a sharing in his suffering and death, before it becomes a sharing in his glorious resurrection.

Action to do at the ceremony: Spend sometimes praying in silence with the crucified Christ.

Holy Saturday and Easter

An ancient homily on Holy Saturday reads: "Something strange is happening - There is a great silence on earth today, a great silence and stillness. The whole earth keeps silence because the King is asleep. The earth trembled and is still because God has fallen asleep in the flesh and he has raised up all who have slept ever since the world began. God has died in the flesh." Basically we wait at the Lord's tomb, meditating on his suffering and death. The spirit of Holy Saturday is magnificently captured by the concluding chorus of Johann Sebastian Bach's Passion according to St Matthew: "We sit by your grave with tears on our eyes, and to you we whisper: have a restful sleep, have a restful sleep."

Easter Vigil – The mother of all vigils

St. Augustine beautifully writes: "While we keep vigil on this night during which we recall to mind the burial of our Lord, we want our vigil to coincide with the time when he slept for us. Thus in the very night when he slept we keep vigil. During the time of his sleep we solemnize a vigil, so that when finally we have arisen for the eternal vigils, he may keep vigil for us".

The Easter vigil is arranged in four parts: the service of light, the liturgy of the word, the liturgy of baptism and renewal of baptismal vows, and the liturgy of the Eucharist. The central parts of the entire celebration are the baptismal and Eucharistic liturgy. While the season of Lent centered on the word of God for conversion, penance, and preparation for baptism, Easter centers on the sacraments of baptism and the Eucharist.
